It all started with a dream - and a platform. In 1990, Steve Madden launched his company with an $1,100 investment, selling shoes out of the trunk of a car. Now, he's at the helm of a billion-dollar empire.

Join Madden at this keynote conversation as he sits down with Aya Kanai to discuss his meteoric rise to the top, starting from the ground up.

Madden will share the highs and lows of entrepreneurship as well as the personal struggles and triumphs of his life and career.
